

How to purchase breeding materials and Poultry chicks

The farmer who is interested to purchase breeding materials or chicks from NLDB, the following requirements to be fulfilled.

a) To purchase Cattle, Goat and Sheep, the farmer should forward a letter of request for breeding materials from the General Manager of National Livestock Development Board with the recommendation of the area veterinary Surgeon.

Pigs can be purchased directly by contacting the respective manager of the farm.

b) Request letters should be forwarded minimum of 3 weeks prior to the date expected to purchase breeding materials.

c) All requests except for pigs and chicks will be registered in the Head Office and a reply letter will be sent to the farmer within 3 days from receiving the request, mentioning his registration number.

d) The farmer will be informed and directed to purchase the required breeding materials within 2 Months according to first come first serve basis.

e) The breeding materials will be issued to the farmer from a selected farm at the rates given in the Livestock sales circular of the Board.

f) To purchase day old pullets and broilers, it is required to keep a deposit (as a bond) in the respective hatchery and there after the farmer can purchase the required quantity when needed.